

Episode 908: Bezos Reflection

Were you Listening???

#1 What is a word that has been used to describe exceptionally fast-growing businesses and their owners?

- A) Rhinoceros
- B) Diamond
- C) Unicorn
- D) Elephant

#2 What business activity have many of these kinds of mega-growth companies come from in the past twenty years?

- A) Financial services
- B) Energy
- C) Manufacturing
- D) Technology

#3 According to the numbers quoted in the episode, what would a $75 investment in Amazon stock in 1997 be worth today?

- A) $160,000
- B) $75
- C) $750
- D) $175 billion

#4 What is tax optimisation?

- A) Paying zero income tax
- B) A legal way to pay as little tax as possible
- C) When your accountant works for you for free
- D) When the government pays tax back to businesses

#5 A venture capitalist is someone who...?

- A) Invests in mountaineering
- B) Is really strict on spelling and punctuation
- C) Who guesses about investments without doing any research
- D) Invests in small companies when they are starting out with the expectation of big returns

